Friday, September 8th

Review Day—The last but by no means the least important day of Canada's Great Exposition for 1899. Everything will remain intact the whole day and all the special attractions and features of other days will remain until 10 p.m., except live stock, which can be removed after 4 p.m. only. This should be one of the best days to view the exhibits, as the large crowds of previous days are somewhat lessened on this day, although everything and every department is just as good and as attractive as on any day of the Fair. In addition to all the features of previous days, a Grand Review of all the Prize Horses and Cattle is presented in front of the Grand Stand at 2 p.m., affording one of the greatest and most interesting sights of the whole Exposition. A procession over two miles in length of the finest horses and cattle in the land passes the Stand, after which the usual entertainment will be given by the great company of specialty performers, Running Horse Races, Open Handicap, half-mile and 55-yard heats, and Half Breds' Race one-and-a-quarter miles, Roman Hippodrome Races, Exhibition by the Royal Canadian Dragoons, etc. The Exhibition Music Hall Vaudeville Show open from 1 to 10 p.m., "the Plaisance," etc., etc. Music by the Governor-General's Body Guard and Exhibition Bands.

Evening—Illumination of grounds, and all buildings open till 10 p.m. All the special features and entertainments complete in front of the grand stand, as on previous evenings. The Exhibition Music Hall, "Plaisance," Band Concerts, etc.

Saturday, September 9th

Exhibitors' Day Only—The public not admitted. The Exhibition will be considered officially closed at 7 a.m., after which exhibitors may remove their exhibits. The Treasurer will be ready to pay prizes at 9 a.m., and all who can make it convenient to do so are requested to call for their awards before leaving the grounds.

N.B.—Many other special features will be added to the above programme between the time of its issue and the opening of the Exhibition.

Conventions, Meetings, etc., at Toronto during Exhibition

A number of important Conventions and Meetings will be held at Toronto during the progress of the Exhibition. Among those already fixed are:—
